THE EMIRATES AIR LINE

Emirates believes the more one sees of the world, the richer life becomes. And so we work to bring cultures and ideas and new ways of doing things closer together. We build bridges between them.

This summer Emirates have bridged together another two cultures. Two cultures which have much in common, but in other ways couldn't be more different. They are North and South London.

Introducing the Emirates Air Line. Crossing the Thames to connect Greenwich Peninsula and the Royal Docks in just five minutes from June 2012.
