

Borough of Southwark

The Shard

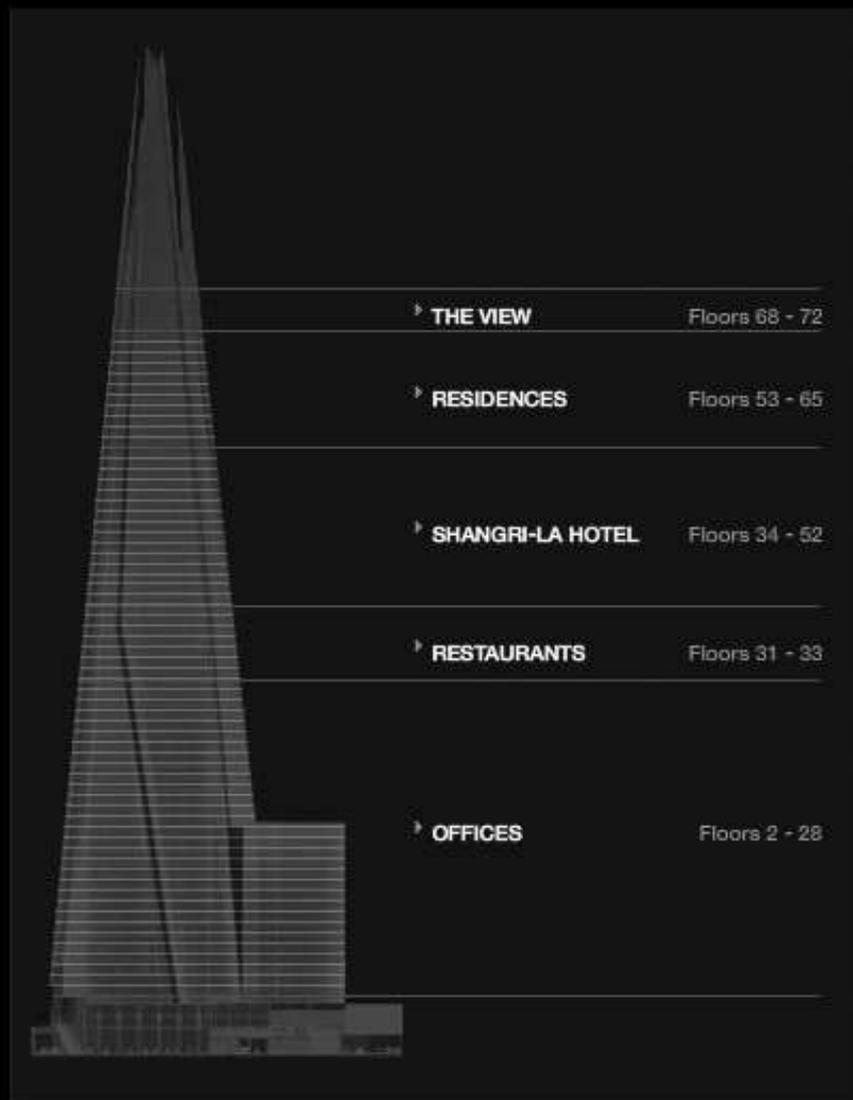

The Shard is the tallest building in Western Europe, its crystalline façade transforming the London skyline with a multi-use 310 m (1,016 ft) vertical city of high-quality offices, world-renowned restaurants, the 5-star Shangri-La hotel, exclusive residential apartments and the capital's highest viewing gallery, The View from The Shard, offering 360° views.

The View is situated at the top of The Shard, the UK's most exciting new attraction, offering visitors unobstructed 360°, 40 mile views across the London skyline and beyond.

Opening Times

The View is open every day from 9.00 to 22.00 daily, so you can enjoy the very different cityscapes day or night. The last ticket slot available is 20.30, with last entry at 21.00. We are closed on 25th December.

To make the most of your visit, we strongly recommend you book your tickets in advance. This way, you will avoid queues and also save money. Advance bookings can be made at any time online up to four months in advance, based on availability.

When you book your tickets online you will be sent an E-ticket that you can print at home. On arrival, you simply scan your ticket which will give you fast track entry without queuing.

You can also book your tickets by phone on +44 (0) 0844 499 7111.
